Homecoming Court 2012

On November 30, 2012, Home Education Partnership of Texas, Inc., in conjunction with the Alpha Chapter of Eta Sigma Alpha National Home School Honor Society, will host the Glow in the Dark Masquerade Ball. This special night focuses on the Living Waters Project with the profit from the event going to this worthwhile charity. Join us for an evening of fun and excitement at the Di Amici Upscale Events Center in Seabrook, TX.

One of the highlights of the evening will be the presentation of HEP of Texas's first ever homecoming court. The court will consist of a 12th grade King and Queen, 11th grade Prince and Princess, 10th grade Duke and Duchess, and 9th grade Lord and Lady.

If you would like to run for the court, here are the guidelines:

1. Fill out an application to run for the court. Available on www.heptx.com, at the store, or in the Teacher Ease Digital Locker.
2. Students must be current HEP TX students in good standing (overall C or 70 average in HEP TX classes as of 10/24/12 as shown on Teacher Ease).
3. Former HEP TX students who are also current ESA members of the Alpha Chapter in good standing may run (overall C average in all college/homeschool classes required; pick up a grade check form from HEP, on-line, or in Digital Locker on TE; due 10/24/12).
4. Students are eligible to run only for their grade level position on the court (ie. 9th graders will run for the 9th grade position of Lord or Lady, etc.).
5. Complete the application and turn it in no later than 10/24/12.
6. You may campaign once we receive your application and approve it. Mrs. Juren will approve all campaign posters before they are posted at HEP TX.
7. The court candidates will be announced on 10/25/12 via Teacher Ease, HEP TX and ESA web pages, Facebook, and in print at HEP TX.

Voting

1. Voting will begin on 10/26/12 and run through 11/9/12.
2. Only current 9th -12th grade HEP TX or Alpha Chapter ESA members who were also HEP TX students may run or vote for the HEP TX homecoming court.
3. Students who have never taken classes at HEP TX may NOT run or vote for the court.
4. Students younger than 9th grade may NOT run or vote for the court.

5. 9th grade students will vote for the 9th grade court; 10th grade students will vote for the 10th grade court; 11th grade students will vote for the 11th grade court; 12th grade students will vote for the 12th grade court.
6. Each HEP TX 9-12th grade student or ESA Alpha member who has been an HEP TX student will receive a ballot with his /her name on it.
7. Put your ballot in the ballot box at HEP TX. The ballot is due no later than 11/9/12. No late ballots will be accepted as the ballot box will go to the counting team at 5pm on 11/9/12.
8. Winners will be announced and presented at the Glow in the Dark Masquerade Ball on 11/30/12.

Vote Counting

1. Ballots will be secret.
2. Votes will be tallied by a team who is not associated with HEP of Texas. The results, in sealed envelopes, will be opened and announced at the Glow in the Dark Masquerade Ball where the winners will be crowned.
